What does success look like?

Based on your event description above (including why you are running your event), please tell us what two key aims you want to achieve by holding your event, and then how you will measure them.

Definitions

Aim: An aim is a result you want to achieve by holding your event.

Community and Neighbourhood Events - Medium R2 2024-25

Form Preview

Measure: An action or way of gathering information to know whether you have met your aim.

Example One:

Aim: We aim to have 75% of attendees live in Hume

Measure: From registration details, being able to show that 75% or more of our attendees had postcodes in Hume.

Example Two:

Aim: We aim to entertain our audience with performances from local artists.

Measures:

1) postcode of artists.

2) in post-event audience satisfaction survey, 50% or more answered positively to the question about whether they enjoyed the performances.

Grant income

* indicates a required field

Please note, this section is made up of three parts:

Part one is for Council contributions

Part two is for other cash contributions (i.e from third parties, or other grants etc)

Part three is for In-kind contributions.

Business and commercial organisations must match the amount requested from Council in part one only.

Community or not for profit organisations must match half the amount requested from Council with a total from part one and two.

Please read page 13 of the Guidelines for more details.

PART ONE - Council contributions

Please confirm the dollar amount you are applying for from Council (per year). *

Must be a dollar amount and no more than 12000.

In-kind support - Council contributions

In-kind support (Council contribution) is where Council waives or reduces our fees including permit fees, Council venue or site hire, and bin hire.

Community and Neighbourhood Events - Medium R2 2024-25

Part three - In Kind support

What is In-kind support?

In Kind support is any non-cash but valuable contribution made to your event. It can come from your organisation or from Council:

In-kind support (Council contribution) is where Council waives or reduces our fees including permit fees, Council venue or site hire, and bin hire. You have already been asked about this on the previous page.

In-kind support (other contributions) is support offered by individuals or businesses to support your event such as volunteering, or waiving venue or equipment hire costs.

This is what you're being asked about in this section.

In-kind support - other contributions

Please list all in-kind support your organisation, or others, are contributing i.e. free publicity, products, volunteer hours etc.

To calculate the value of volunteer hours, think about what you would have to pay an employee to do the same task i.e. Administration could be $40 an hour, but event-day volunteers might be $29.
